

Mission Statement

The mission of Swaddling Clothes is to share the mercy of Christ with our neighbors through the gifts of clothing, food, friendship, and the forgiving Word of God.

How does “Swaddling Clothes” work?

From various donors, we assemble a collection of items associated with pregnancy and motherhood—maternity and baby clothes, diapers, formula, bottles, etc. Then, on the first Saturday of each month, Redeemer Lutheran hosts a “shopping day” where you can survey our collection and take whatever you need, up to a certain number of items.

If any of the items you take can be re-donated to Swaddling Clothes when you are done with them, we ask that you do so to help those in need after you.

We also partner with a number of other organizations, providing you with referrals if you are seeking counseling, health care, employment, etc... And, of course, being a part of a Lutheran congregation, we are always ready to share pastoral care and a Gospel word with those who need them.

The Sanctity of Life

God’s eternal Son began His earthly life as an embryo. And when that embryo was a grown man, He shed His blood for the entire world, including those who were nothing more than a few cells in their mothers’ wombs.

For this reason, God never wants abortion to happen. And, as Christians, one of the greatest ways we can help keep our neighbor far from this temptation is by making pregnancy less frightening.

If you’re frightened that you don’t have the resources to care for the child in your womb or the children outside your womb, we’re here to help.

If you’re scared that you don’t know how to navigate this new part of your life, we’re here to help.

If you’re worried about judgment or rejection, we’re here with God’s word of mercy and hope, a word that no one can take away from you.

Christ loved you from your very beginning. He’ll love you to the end. That’s why we’re here.

About Redeemer Lutheran Church

Lutheranism came to the Eastern Shore of Mobile Bay as early as 1884 when pastors from Mobile, AL started to serve scattered Lutherans as time gave opportunity. In 1945, Redeemer Lutheran Church officially started as a congregation. The parish moved to its current location in 1948. Throughout the growth of Fairhope, the congregation has served as a place of Christ’s Gospel and mercy to the community.

Redeemer is a member of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. We hold fast to the Scriptures, the 66 canonical books of the Old and New Testaments, along with the understanding of these books found in a series of writings known as the Lutheran Confessions. Each week we gather as sinful people to receive the grace and mercy of God found in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

This emphasis on the Gospel of Christ for sinners is the foundation of all that we do here. We come together around the Word of God, read and preached, and the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion. By these gifts we are strengthened and sustained in the one true faith by the Holy Spirit. We are then able to, by the Holy Spirit, go out, proclaiming the Gospel of Christ and showing this grace and mercy to those around us in all that we do and say.

We would love to tell you more about Redeemer Lutheran Church. For more information about our congregation, please contact us by phone or email.
